

Langston Hughes Community Library & Cultural Center Invite you to:
The Freedom Series / In Recognition of Juneteenth

The Afternoon of Community Empowerment

Featuring: Kermit Eady
founder of Eady Associates and the Black United Fund of New York

Featuring: Gil Noble host of the longest running Black TV talk show in the nation WABC's "Like It Is."

We will be discussing topics such as:

The effects of the media on business start-up and development.

Is the media necessary for the empowerment of Black America?

The economic conditions of Black America and its relationship to the media.

Our own personal growth and success through the incorporation of universal/spiritual laws in our lives

Also some very real advise involving do's and don'ts of business start-ups.

Moderated by Rev. Howard H.L Dill, Pastor St. Mark A.M.E Church & Goldie Watkins-Bryant, M.P.H Public Health Consultant.

Where: Langston Hughes Community Library & Cultural Center
